Foreword

Having students play in small chamber music groups is a very beneficial exercise to improve the student's overall musicianship. The simplest form of chamber music is the duet. It is an opportunity for the student to play with a teacher or to play with another student of similar abilities. Aspects of playing such as tone quality, intonation, technique and ensemble skills can be developed during the process of studying duets.

These duets are different in that they have many different performance options since all of the books in this series are compatible. As former long time music educators we always had student that wanted to come to the music room during lunch or after school and they just wanted to play with their friends. That was not possible since there is very little duet material available that is compatible with all of the string instruments. This book and the first volume in the series takes care of that. A student can now grab their friend no matter what instrument they play and have hours of fun playing duets together. Most important they will learn something in the process.

The duets have been generally placed in the book in order of difficulty and cover a range of keys that are appropriate for this ability level. Special care was given to making sure that both of the duet parts were on a similar ability level and that each line was given an opportunity to play a lead role at some point during the arrangement. Also, most of the musical markings are attached to both systems and the point size of the music was considered for ease of reading.

It is our hope that this collection will help to stimulate and enhance the musicianship of the performers. It was a pleasure for me to have the opportunity to put together this collection. We hope it is a useful tool for you for years to come.

Allegro giocoso

No. 23

The musical score is written for piano and consists of 24 measures. It is in the key of D major (two sharps) and 2/4 time. The tempo is marked Allegro giocoso. The score is divided into four systems of two staves each. The first system (measures 1-5) begins with a forte (f) dynamic. The second system (measures 6-11) continues the piece. The third system (measures 12-16) features a piano (p) dynamic. The fourth system (measures 17-24) includes a repeat sign at measure 17 and ends with a crescendo (cresc.) marking. A large, semi-transparent watermark is visible across the center of the page.
