About the Arranger

A native of North Carolina, David Eddleman was born on August 20, 1936. He did his undergraduate studies at Appalachian State University, earning a BS degree in Music Education in 1958. Following the earning of a Master of Music Degree at Virginia Commonwealth University in Richmond, VA he studied composition with Gardner Read at Boston University, where he received a Doctor of Musical Arts Degree in 1971. He has taught at all levels of Music Education and for 24 years he was a Senior Editor at Silver Burdett Ginn, a leading publisher of classroom music materials in the United States, where he designed classroom music curricula.

Well known, in particular, as a composer of choral music, he has over 350 titles published with a broad spectrum of publishers including Carl Fischer, Silver Burdett Ginn, Shawnee Press, Hal Leonard, Plymouth Music, Transcontinental Music Publishers and Neil A. Kjos Music.

Since his retirement from Silver Burdett Ginn, he has continued to write music, teach at local community colleges on New Jersey, where he lives, and appear as a choral clinician and guest lecturer.
