Orchestral Excerpts For Flute, Volume 2 with Piano Accompaniment has transformed the literature and become the standard excerpt book since its release in 1995. The original collection presents excerpts as you’ll see them on auditions and orchestra stands, enhanced with Baxtresser’s insightful commentaries on preparing each excerpt. Prefatory essays and piano accompaniments add further resources to best prepare for auditions and life as an orchestra player.

Orchestral Excerpts For Flute, Volume 2 with Piano Accompaniment provides all the same features for thorough preparation of another 56 excerpts drawn from 27 works including Tchaikowsky ballets, Strauss tone poems, John Williams film scores, and a wealth of essential repertoire from Bach through Stravinsky.

Jeanne Baxtresser’s audio CD recording of the Excerpts, 414-41171D • $24.95

Jeanne Baxtresser, principal flautist with the New York Philharmonic, and Martha Rearick, also an orchestral flautist and much in demand as a pianist, have assembled THE source book for the auditioning orchestral flautist.

Many times, over the last few years, I have wished that I could have the opportunity to add a few new ideas and to continue polishing the original. With this revised edition, my opportunity is here. — Jeanne Baxtresser

Already a staple in flute pedagogy, former New York Philharmonic principal flutist Jeanne Baxtresser’s Orchestral Excerpts for Flute becomes even more essential with this revised edition containing over 50 of the most-requested audition pieces, including Mahler’s Das Lied von der Erde, Ravel’s Daphnis et Chloe, Stravinsky’s Petrouchka, and dozens more. This newly enhanced edition is packed with helpful tips and performance notes, additional errata, new and alternate fingerings, suggested tempi for all pieces, plus two updated, professional, principal flute audition lists. As required literature for more and more college courses, Orchestral Excerpts For Flute: Revised Edition is a must-have flute book for advanced players.

This book will be appreciated by professional flutists and all serious students of the flute. Congratulations to both Miss Baxtresser and Miss Rearick.
— Julius Baker, Former Principal NY Philharmonic

The excerpts are well chosen, and for my money, [Ms. Baxtresser’s] comments are right on the mark. Bravo!
— Donald Peck, Principal Flute, Chicago Symphony Orchestra

...it clears out many misprints or mistakes in the orchestral parts that we use every day in orchestral life, without having to look into the score... [This] book explains maximum concentration, control and creativity ‘from inside the music’...— Emmanuel Pahud, Principal Flute, Berlin Philharmonic

Jeanne Baxtresser has chosen the most-requested audition pieces and many of the most beautiful duets in the orchestral repertoire for Great Flute Duos. All flute parts are printed exactly as they appear in the most often used editions, retaining the original page breaks and turns to replicate the audition experience. Each excerpt is presented along with Ms. Baxtresser’s commentary and advice on preparation and performance.

Renée Siebert, Second Flute, New York Philharmonic, lends her wisdom and experience to the second flute parts, published in a separate pull-out book. Another pull-out from the volume includes rarely reprinted alto flute parts with advice on performance by David Cramer, Associate Principal Flute, Philadelphia Orchestra.

A virtual audition manual for aspiring orchestral flutists, special focus is given to the qualities of musical leadership needed in a principal flutist, the complex challenges of a second flute position and valuable suggestions for the performance of the major alto flute solos.
Piccoloist Nicola Mazzanti is celebrated around the world as a foremost performer, teacher, and guest clinician. Mazzanti’s lectures and workshops are known for his daily exercises for piccolo players, and THE MAZZANTI METHOD brings together his comprehensive collection of studies.

PART I: SOUND is a complete course in itself, providing a wide spectrum of studies, discussions, “check points,” repertoire melodies in twelve transpositions, tone, intonation, and more.

PART II: SCALES AND EXERCISES is equally thorough and invaluable in presenting these cornerstones of technique, perfectly suited to the piccolo.

PART III: MELODIES, OPERA, AND LIEDER provides enriching opportunities to bring these technical lessons to practical application by using the greatest cantabile studies from vocal repertoire.

ADVANCED FLUTE STUDIES: THE ART OF CHUNKING

The first and only method for flutists to master the process of “chunking” as a pedagogical technique. Through exploration of technical studies, etudes, preludes, cadenzas, and solos, the flutist is introduced to basic through advanced chunking techniques to facilitate reading and tone development. Musical “Bon Bons” for articulation, intonation, and tone development, are also integrated into the innovative curriculum.

Continuing the pedagogical approach of FLUTE 101, FLUTE 102, and FLUTE 103, THE ART OF CHUNKING introduces a powerful learning strategy making it a must-have staple – perfect for use in both private and university studios. 162 pages. Spiral bound.

Includes a Comprehensive Daily Warm-up.

Explores the building blocks of music through the study of scales, thirds, arpeggios, and seventh chords.

Organizes eye/hand coordination and enhances technical development using the chunking technique.

Develops efficient, relaxed breathing by practicing the panting technique.

Inspires creativity and musical expression with the study and performance of preludes and cadenzas.

Fosters the development of tone and articulation.

Contains three unaccompanied solos, plus appropriate repertoire suggestions from various style periods.
Part of the mystique of flute vibrato has been the lack of understanding about how it is produced.

The Flute Vibrato Book –
✓ Defines vibrato, explains how vibrato is produced
✓ Offers a wealth of information about learning and refining the skill and its usage
✓ Well-known melodies are used throughout
✓ Explanations and exercises enhance your vibrato production and control
✓ Designed for flutists of all ages and levels of advancement

I Used to Play is a new series for adults looking to get back into playing their instruments of yesteryear and will help jump start their memory and comfort with music. Its number one goal is to get people re-acquainted with their instrument(s) by providing them with types of music they want to play, such as pop, jazz, and classic tunes, rather than etudes.

Each book contains a CD with audio MP3 files of complete performances and accompaniment versions of most songs. The CD also contains printable PDFs of piano parts for practice or performance opportunities.

It’s just the push former players need to fall back in love with their instruments again!

The music of Wolfgang Amadeus Mozart is universally cherished by listeners and performers, transcending boundaries and generations. World-renowned flutist Robert Stallman has created two unique compilations for solo flute, providing even more “new” Mozart selections that invite flutists to enter more fully into Mozart’s expressive world. These adeptly prepared editions, offer music for enjoyment, inspiration, study and performance, while encouraging fluency in Mozart’s often elusive style—one that the great pianist Artur Schnabel called “too easy for children, and too difficult for artists.”

Flock
for Flute Ensemble

Written for a quintet of four flutes and alto flute, Flock was inspired by minimalist composer Steve Reich’s Vermont Counterpoint, a tour de force for multiple flutes. The flutes in Flock represent the flight pattern of a flurry of birds, which move in and out of chaos, harmony and tight togetherness through use of polyrhythms and accents. The multiple flute lines create an energetic atmosphere that utilizes both classical and pop musical idioms.

WE19 – $26.99

This unique collection contains trio settings of popular church hymns that can be played by any combination of three instruments, giving you the opportunity to perform these settings with any wind, brass, or strings. A piano score is available that contains piano/keyboard parts along with a concert pitch score of the instrumental music.

"A truly stunning composition. One will never hear the bass flute the same… the emotional colours that are invoked through Dorff’s use of lyricism and rhythmic drive set this gem in a league of its own. I’m honoured Danny…Thank you for inspiring the next generation."

Ewazen, Eric
114-41462 Divinities at Dawn (from Celestial Dancers) (Fantasie for Flute and Piano) Peck (CF) $14.99

Divinities at Dawn is inspired by the composer’s visit to the extraordinary temples of Angkor Wat in Cambodia, which are covered with thousands of carvings. Seeing the gleaming images of Divinities in the early morning hours inspired Ewazen’s wind ensemble suite, Celestial Dancers. Divinities at Dawn is his flute and piano adaptation of the suite’s third movement. The music portrays the early morning hours as the sun creates a golden glow on the ornate carvings with music that is soft, quiet, and mysterious – but as the sun continues to rise and gleam, the music becomes energetic and full of life with the Divinities’ dance becoming joyous and intricate with swirling musical gestures rising to the heavens.

Paganini, Nicolò
114-41855 La Campanella........ arr. Denis Bouriakov (PR) $19.99
Composed as the rondo finale of Paganini’s Violin Concerto No. 2, La Campanella quickly took on a life of its own, being quoted by other composers in their own works even during the composer’s lifetime. The title refers to a small bell motif that recurs in the accompaniment, in dialog with the soloist. Bouriakov’s transcription for flute and piano exquisitely captures the original sparkle, levity, and intensity, in a manner that is gratifying to perform and to hear. The present transcription was included on the repertoire list for the 2019 Tchaikovsky Competition.

114-41838 Four Joplin Rags ..........................David Gilliland (PR) $21.99
Scott Joplin’s ragtime gems are American classics, equally suitable for the recital stage or less formal occasions. David Gilliland’s transcriptions for two flutes and piano may be presented either as a suite or individually. Gilliland has crafted the collection so flute duos may share the joy of performing Joplin together, while the pianist provides the big “stride” accompaniments. Includes The Easy Winners, The Entertainer, Palm Leaf Rag, and The Cascades. For advanced performers. Dur.: 15’

A collection of 18 of Bach’s most celebrated keyboard and instrumental gems, transcribed by master orchestrator Carter Pann, for a flexibly-scored ensemble of 10 woodwinds. It includes works such as Jesu, Joy of Man’s Desiring from Cantata 147 (BWV 147), Sarabande from Overture in the French Manner, Two-Part Invention No. 6 (BWV 777) and more. The Bach Buch is ideal for individual movements to be used with school ensembles, or features within band concerts. The publication also includes extensive historical and musicological notes by Carter Pann.

When commissioned by the celebrated Sparx Duo, Dorff’s thoughts immediately went to the French medieval style that had so captured his attention in his college days. The resulting five-movement duo reflects the music of the period and includes as the fourth movement a statement of the 14th-century love song “Hélas! Je voy mon cuer a fin venir” by Solage. Dorff’s neo-medieval sound is full of plaintive lyricism and driving dance rhythms. Each of the five movements may be performed individually for special occasions, as well as in recital as a 16-minute suite.

A true family affair, Ewazen's Quartet from the Heartland was written to celebrate the retirement of a good friend and long-time band director. The instrumentation reflects those practiced by his wife (flute) and daughters (trumpet and horn), who performed the work at a surprise party with the composer at the piano. The Quartet is an arrangement from the first movement of Ewazen's Heartland Symphony, which he describes as "lively, energetic, playful, and joyous."

Percussion & Woodwind Quintet

Flute and guitar duo, along with string quartet, perform three movements based on Sephardic folk songs. The common theme is love just out of reach: the sad hope of finding love, the unrequited love for an older woman, the spurned love of the unfaithful (“Searching, rejection, and loss,” as Leisner says). The relevant folk songs are stated within each of the pieces—at the beginning of the first, in the middle of the second, at the end of the third, and are used as the base for Leisner’s “stream-of-consciousness meditations.”

ARCHIVAL WORKS and OUT-OF-PRINT MATERIALS

If you are looking for an archival or out-of-print work, please complete the photocopy license request form under the “licensing” tab on our website www.carlfischer.com

Throughout the Trade Guide are titles with the indication “CP.”

These are works available as print-on-demand, or Custom Print, editions. While Custom Print began as a service to provide one-off copies of music that had gone permanently out of print, we quickly realized that this was the perfect opportunity to bring new music to print, which would not otherwise be available!

We take great pride in the advances we’ve made in Custom Print production quality, and we work hard to ensure the shortest turn-around time possible between order and shipment. Today, our Custom Print department ships thousands of copies each year as a matter of routine.

Custom Print editions can be ordered quickly and easily through your Sales Rep, along with all of your normal print music needs.

Most Custom Print orders are shipped the same day or the following day, but if your order is time-sensitive, please be sure to communicate this to your Sales Rep at the time of the order.

TELEMANN, Georg Philipp
Minuet from Suite in A minor

A short or comparatively easy composition need not necessarily be bad music or obviously vulgar. I assume that the apprentice student, the amateur, the young professional and the proven artist all have musical good taste and want superior music to play at every stage of the development. Accordingly, this compilation of flute music in the medium-to-easy category by some of the greatest composers in the world.

Most of the works were originally written for the flute. In those pieces arranged for flute and piano I have tried to be as faithful to the composers' intentions as possible. I have added a few metronome marks, a few breath marks, and put in a variety of phrasings, slurs, tonguing, dynamics, etc. to give an idea of the manner in which the piece might be played. If, however, the performer will impart a mood of his own, based on the composer's style and historical period, it will add to both the musical result and to his enjoyment of playing it. — D.P.
