NEW Lullabies

Following the birth of her first child, violinist Rachel Barton Pine went looking for a collection of lullabies written for violin and piano. After finding nothing in existence, she set about gathering sheet music and recording her own versions with pianist Matthew Hagle.

This new collection celebrates the beauty of new life and parenthood with familiar tunes and new discoveries by composers such as Brahms, Ravel, Fauré, and Gershwin. Meticulously edited, these are short and elegant while remaining compositionally sophisticated, perfect for intermediate or advanced violinists. As an additional resource, the collection contains downloadable piano accompaniments and tracks performed by Matthew Hagle.

THE SPANISH ALBUM

By Various Composers
Foreword and Compilation by Eric Wen

The Spanish Album represents classical music's resurgence in Spain in the mid-nineteenth century, and the nationalistic emphasis of the Romantic era certainly provided fertile ground for the use of the unique sounds of the Iberian Peninsula. In the realm of violin music, Pablo de Sarasate's compositions revealed Romantic Spain to much of the world and were inspirations for many other composers' violin works in the same vein. Eric Wen has compiled a great representative survey of this musical period, and his foreword provides a lively and informative background for the pieces and composers in this book. Includes Camille Saint-Saëns' Havanaise en mi majeur, Pablo de Sarasate's Malagueña, José Aviles' La Media noche, and 14 others.

Exercises for the Violin & Viola in Various Combinations of Double-Stops

Book with DVD
By Roland Vamos
Foreword by Rachel Barton Pine

Written by world renown pedagogue, Roland Vamos, this collection of double-stop exercises fill a void in the literature of technical exercises for violinists and violists. These etudes feature a systematic series of fixed double-stops that enables the player to practice and master every possible combination of finger patterns across two strings without shifting. Mr. Vamos says of the book, "The most important accomplishment is the development of a strong left hand... These exercises, when practiced slowly and carefully, will help to develop a keen sense of pitch and intonation." Includes a DVD with performance examples.

FOR THE 100TH ANNIVERSARY
OF THE OPENING OF STRAVINSKY'S BALLET

THE RITE OF SPRING

On May 29, 1913, an over-capacity audience in Paris' Théâtre des Champs-Élysées witnessed an historical spectacle as they became a brute catalyst in the most (in) famous opening night of the twentieth century. The Rite of Spring premiered that evening in the midst of a riot, inspired by the overwhelming primitivism both onstage and in the score. One hundred-plus years later, the music still incites the senses. The ballet was first published in 1914 in a reduction for two pianos, and serves as a basis for this arrangement. This edition is presented in honor of the centennial of the ballet's premiere, and is intended to give soloists and accompanists a chance to perform two movements from this monumental work. The movements can be performed separately, and the first movement can be played as a solo without piano accompaniment. For advanced players.

Hersch, Michael

114-41875 in the snowy margins (unacc.)..... (PR) $14.99
The seven-movement in the snowy margins might be considered a sort of atomic suite, as each movement is succinct, yet a microcosmic powerhouse inspired by "The Comet," by Polish writer and Holocaust victim Bruno Schulz. Hersch's intensity is expressed through dramatically captivating violin gestures, pushing the boundaries of texture, technique, and emotion.

Three diverse pieces by Samuel Adler are presented. Emunah (Faith) is a paean to his wife, Emily. L'olam Vaed dates back to 1978 and is printed in proportional notation, to better guide the musicians and "to maximize the performers' expressive freedom." Tribute, the most recent of the three, was written to mark the reopening of Alice Tully Hall in 2009.

Cello legend Jacqueline du Pré's (1945–1987) timeless musical voice has inspired the greatest of today's cellists to study her techniques right down to the intimate minutiae of her most famous performances. In this very special edition of Sir Edward Elgar's Concerto in E Minor Op. 85, world renowned performer and teacher, Marion Feldman, has delivered a transcription of unprecedented detail. Feldman has carefully documented every articulation, fingering, and bowing found in a video recording of du Pré, which, coupled with Feldman's extensive experience with the instrument, makes this an indispensable resource for students and professionals alike.

Written in 1972, while Ewazen was pursuing undergraduate studies at Eastman, the Sonata No. 1 for Cello and Piano is his first foray into the 20th-century American tonal music that he first embraced at that time. Composed for a classmate and proficient cellist, Julie Charland, the Sonata is in three movements, the second of which is quite demanding of virtuosity. (Manuscript)

114-41888 A Poem of Hope (Vcl., Pno. red.)..... (PR) $11.99

Idealism, humanity, world peace, and altruism, have been recurring themes and inspirations in many compositions by Eric Ewazen. In 2007, the Sejong Soloists commissioned this work for Cello and Strings to feature Paula Zahn as guest soloist – the celebrated telejournalist is an exceptional cellist, and a frequent and distinguished host for the concerts Sejong performs in New York City. The work was written for a gala concert honoring Ban Ki-Moon, Secretary General of the United Nations, and therefore the ultimate leader of international peacekeeping efforts. The resulting work, equally suitable for Cello and Piano, is appropriately titled A POEM OF HOPE.

Zwilich, Ellen Taaffe

144-40702 Excursion ..... (PR) $13.99

Ellen Zwilich was already imagining music for contrabass and piano when bassist Michael Cameron serendipitously contacted her to commission such a work for premiere at the 2017 ISB convention. The result is Zwilich's Excursion, a 6-minute work best described by its evocative title. Excursion teases with long sustained notes charged with expectations of being ready to take off in the fast lane at any moment, a promise which is realized with great exhilaration. Two piano parts are included with the publication to provide for solo tuning as well as concert pitch performance. Dur.: 6'

Flute and guitar duo, along with string quartet, perform three movements based on Sephardic folk songs. The common theme is love just out of reach: the sad hope of finding love, the unrequited love for an older woman, the spurned love of the unfaithful ("Searching, rejection, and loss," as Leisner says). The relevant folk songs are stated within each of the pieces–at the beginning of the first, in the middle of the second, at the end of the third, and are used as the base for Leisner's "stream-of-conciousness meditations."

David Brooker's arrangements are suitable for string groups from large to small. Children will love playing these pieces which can be played effectively by some or all of the instruments and in different combinations. "Easy Open Strings" parts are provided for players in their earliest stages perhaps with the piano providing the melody. Other parts can gradually be added. Well-known pieces such as "Twinkle, Twinkle Little Star", "This Old Man", "Merrily We Roll Along" with three pieces from David Brooker himself, are included.

ARCHIVAL WORKS and OUT-OF-PRINT MATERIALS

If you are looking for an archival or out-of-print work, please complete the photocopy license request form under the "licensing" tab on our website www.carlfischer.com

Throughout the Trade Guide are titles with the indication "CP."

These are works available as print-on-demand, or Custom Print, editions. While Custom Print began as a service to provide one-off copies of music that had gone permanently out of print, we quickly realized that this was the perfect opportunity to bring new music to print, which would not otherwise be available!

We take great pride in the advances we've made in Custom Print production quality, and we work hard to ensure the shortest turn-around time possible between order and shipment. Today, our Custom Print department ships thousands of copies each year as a matter of routine.

Custom Print editions can be ordered quickly and easily through your Sales Rep, along with all of your normal print music needs.

Most Custom Print orders are shipped the same day or the following day, but if your order is time-sensitive, please be sure to communicate this to your Sales Rep at the time of the order.
