Performance Notes

Synthesis is a piece set in D minor. This piece first introduces each section's unique melodies before uniting each melody to create an exciting and mysterious composition. Students will find this piece to be interesting and exhilarating. Synthesis will not only be an excellent addition to your music library but also challenge your musicians with exacting music.

About the Composer

Isaiah C. Mason is a music educator in Central New Jersey. He earned his undergraduate degree in music education from Rutgers University and a graduate degree in music education from Temple University. Mason also proudly serves as a musician in the 63rd Army Band of the New Jersey Army National Guard, performing as a trumpeter, vocalist, and french horn player.

Mason is currently the band teacher at Linwood School in North Brunswick, New Jersey. In addition to his professional duties, Mason is the Diversity, Equity, Inclusion, and Access (DEIA) Chair for the New Jersey Music Educators Association (NJMEA) and the Diversity and Inclusion Division Chair for the Central Jersey Music Educators Association (CJMEA).
