Notes

Three Silent Nights combines three favorite pieces of the holiday season in an exciting and engaging arrangement that your students will love! All through the Night starts this arrangement with energy and engaging passages for all parts of the orchestra. Then, the tempo slows down and the meter and key changes for Silent Night before picking up even more for O, Holy Night and a dramatic ending. First violins will have shifting, while second violins and violas will continue to master changing finger patterns. Cellos will work on extensions and shifting and basses will encounter shifts as well. This is a great piece to have your developing ensemble stretch their musicality in the yuletide season!

About the Arranger

Austin Isaac is the high school orchestra director at Lake Braddock Secondary School in Burke, Virginia. He has taught orchestra at the elementary and secondary levels in both public and private schools in Virginia. He received his B.M. from James Madison University with a concentration in instrumental education and his Master's Degree in Education from George Mason University. He has been commissioned and has written works for string orchestra, full orchestra, and choir. In addition to being a published composer, Austin has served as a guest conductor, clinician, and adjudicator for honor orchestras and state assessment performances in various regions of Virginia.
